10. Legal Advice	The staff of the Bankruptcy Clerk's Office cannot give legal advice. To protect your rights, consult an attorney.
11. Creditors May Not Take Certain Actions	The filing of the case imposed an automatic stay against most collection activities. This means that creditors generally may not take action to collect debts from the debtors or the debtors' property. For example, while the stay is in effect, creditors cannot sue, garnish wages, assert a deficiency, repossess property, or otherwise try to collect from the debtors. Creditors cannot demand repayment from debtors by mail, phone, or otherwise. Creditors who violate the stay can be required to pay actual and punitive damages and attorney's fees. Under certain circumstances, the stay may be limited to 30 days or not exist at all, although debtors can ask the court to extend or impose a stay.
12. Meeting of Creditors	A meeting of creditors is scheduled for the date, time and location listed on the front side. Debtors must attend the meeting to be questioned under oath by the trustee and by creditors. In a joint case, both spouses must attend. Creditors may attend, but are not required to do so. The meeting may be continued and concluded at a later date specified in a notice filed with the court.

Therefore, other than claims secured by a security interest in the debtor(s)' principal residence, please do not file a proof of claim now. If it later appears that assets are available to pay creditors, the Clerk will send you another notice telling you that you may file a proof of claim and stating the deadline. Do not include this notice with any filing you make with the court.
14. Discharge of Debts	The debtors are seeking a discharge. Creditors who assert that the debtors are not entitled to a discharge of any debts or who want to have a particular debt excepted from discharge may be required to file a complaint in the Bankruptcy Clerk's Office within the deadlines specified in this notice. (See line 7 for more information.)
15. Exempt Property	The law allows debtors to keep certain property as exempt. Fully exempt property will not be sold and distributed to creditors. Debtors must file a list of property claimed as exempt. You may inspect that list at the Bankruptcy Clerk's Office or online at www.pacer.gov . If you believe that the law does not authorize an exemption that the debtors claim, you may file an objection. The Bankruptcy Clerk's Office must receive the objection by the deadline to object to exemptions in line 7.
16. Creditors with a Foreign Address	If you are a creditor receiving a notice mailed to a foreign address, you may file a motion asking the court to extend the deadlines in this notice. Consult an attorney familiar with United States bankruptcy law if you have any questions about your rights in this case.
